II. Background.

On April 19, 2016, the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") issued an Order Instituting Cease-and-Desist Proceedings Pursuant to Section 21C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Making Findings, and Imposing Cease-and-Desist Orders and Penalties (the "Order") against the Respondents (the "Administrative Action"). In the Order, the Commission found Logitech responsible for recurring instances of improper accounting between 2008 and 2013 related to a product write-down, warranty liabilities, and revenue recognition. The Commission further found Doktorczyk and Bolles, both former officers of Logitech, responsible for the improper accounting for warranty liabilities that occurred during their employment. The Commission ordered Logitech, Doktorczyk, and Bolles to pay civil money penalties of $7,500,000.00, $50,000.00, and $25,000.00, respectively. The Respondents have since paid in full and the Commission holds more than $7.575 million, comprised of the civil money penalties paid by the Respondents and accrued interest.

On February 27, 2018, the Commission established a Fair Fund, pursuant to Section 308(a) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as amended, so that the $7.575 million in civil money penalties paid by the Respondents can be distributed for the benefit of the injured investors (the "Logitech Fair Fund").^[2] The Logitech Fair Fund is deposited in an interest bearing account at the United States Treasury Department's Bureau of the Fiscal Service ("BFS"). All BFS fees will be paid by the Fair Fund, first from the interest earned on the funds, and if the interest is not sufficient, from the corpus of the Fair Fund. The assets of the Fair Fund are subject to the continuing jurisdiction and control of the Commission.

On November 30, 2017, the Commission appointed Miller Kaplan Arase LLP as Tax Administrator for the Logitech Fair Fund to handle its tax obligations. On March 30, 2018, the Commission appointed the Fund Administrator to assist in developing and executing the Plan. On October 26, 2018, the Commission approved the Plan.
